

We appreciate the bread and gluten free wafers baked by Rick Finklea and Ginger Miller for tonight's service.

Tonight's spoken poetry is from Eggs and Ashes by Ruth Burgess and Chris Polhill.

You are encouraged to return tomorrow at 7:00 p.m. for the Good Friday, Tenebrae, service, which is held in the Sanctuary.

Please invite family and friends to join you for one of three morning services on Easter Sunday, April 16 – 8:30, 9:30, and 11:00.

Parking for visitors will be available in the lot directly behind the church off Grinstead Drive. Additional parking information may be found at <https://hbclouisville.org/parking-and-directions/>.

A Prayer before the Washing

A Symbol of Humbleness and Servanthood
(You are invited to come to a station, have your hands washed and dried, then take the pitcher and towel and wash the hands of the person who follows you.)

The washer: With willing hands, I wash and cleanse.
The washed: With a humble heart, I will serve.

Hymn Make Me a Servant

Make me a servant, humble and meek,
Lord, let me lift up those who are weak;
And may the prayer of my heart always be:
Make me a servant, make me a servant,
make me a servant today.

The Exchange of Peace

Hymn I Come with Joy

I come with joy to meet my Lord, forgiven, loved and free, in awe and wonder to recall Christ's life laid down for me.

As Christ breaks bread and bids us share, each proud division ends.
The love that made us, makes us one, and strangers now are friends.

Song of Response Abide with Us

Abide with us, that through this life of doubts and hope and pain, an Easter of unending joy we may at last attain!

Together met, together bound, we'll go our different way, and as God's people in the world, we'll live and speak God's praise.
